

Box 29 Folder 8

[Review for Pratt-Hunt trip]

#26

CALCA 1954

Diary for
Pratt - Grant Trip

Feb 24 - March 2

Feb. 24

- left Invernillo Tm C 319
- Located site
- Stashed Artifacts etc at Guerra's in Ocampo
- Arranged to have cheque (500 pesos) cashed in ~~El Monte~~ El Monte
- Dr. Del Pino arranged that this might be done on his account.
- Arrived El Monte - stayed at Hotel Central

Feb. 25

- Shopped for canned goods
- Got cheque for 500 pesos cashed
- Arrived in Olivo where Pablo Cepeda was not at home to consult so pushed on to ~~La~~ Laguna del Sapo
- Stayed at Jose Sanchez Aleman's for dinner & arranged to visit a cave in the Cañon de los Pintos the following day

Feb. 26

- Guided by ~~Antonio~~ Antonio Dimas visited La Cueva del Tigre in the Cañon de los Pintos - This was a pretty grotto but no Indian material within: Closest Ranch Los Pintos.
- Guided by Jose Sanchez Aleman visited La Cueva de la Oja de Agua de Canoas (see card Tm C 320)
- Saw Sr. Narciso Acuña who told us of a small tiny narrow rock crevice in the Cañon de los Pintos which had a pot in it. He also recommended Procuro & Patricio Naves in Abasco to serve as guides.

- Jose Sanchez Aleman informed us of a Cueva Tapada at Joya de las Salas which had been broken open and revealed an individual in excellent preservation. Also he said that the Cerro Servastilla near El Olivo was "loaded" with cuesillos.

Feb 27

[Review for Pratt House trip]

#26

(12)

